

INTERACTIVE INTERIORS

Hard Wired Lighting System FAQ's

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ) and a little tongue-in-cheek

Q: What is a Hard-wired lighting Control system?

A: A Hard wired lighting Control System is an total control solution that can control hundreds and thousands of lighting scenes and functions at your Residence or Business, with just about any thing can be controlled. From pumps to fountains and even the Pool lights.

Q: Is A Hard-wired lighting Control System a good investment?

A: Home Automation is an important way to prepare yourself for the future. Additionally, a system can save you thousands of dollars by automating energy-consuming devices such as thermostats and other appliances.

Q: Who can install a hard-wired lighting system (Can my electrician install one)?

A: Yes if the manufacturer certifies them. Usually it's a partnership between an Automation firm and the electrician to Design, install and program the system. (Some Automation firms even have electricians on staff). Ask to find out if they are certified.

Q: Will the lighting system match the look of my home's interior?

A: Most systems have aesthetically pleasing plates and designs that doesn't draw attention to itself or away from other features of the home. Some systems offer the choice of different finishes and different keypad configurations to match your needs.

Q: How can I benefit from owning a System?

A: Certain systems integrate common tasks and daily routines into its programming to make your life simpler. One press of a button can replace dozens of commands to simplify your life. Some systems can also learn your routines and anticipate daily tasks with built-in memory and timed events. You benefit by making your home ready for the future of technology by offering integration with most any other devices. By doing this, you increase the value of your home

Q: Can I turn on and off my lights by clapping?

A: I'm sorry but that feature is only available with the Clapper®.

Hard Wired Lighting System FAQ's

Q: Can my existing automation system be intergraded into the lighting control system?

A: Yes most contain a Rs232 Communication interface and with some nifty programming your automation system can talk to the lighting control system.

Q: Can my lights be programmed to go on at sunset and off at sunrise?

A: Yes, the big difference is that unlike a timer light, most systems have a built-in astronomical timing that changes lighting based upon the time-of-year.

Q: Can I turn off my children's light after they have fallen asleep for the night from our room?

A: Yes and better yet you can have the system turn if off for you.

Q: How can the system turn the light off for us?

A: Some systems have built-in memory and timed events so it remembers when you turn off a light.

Q: Can I dim down or raise the level of light from a keypad station?

A: Yes all keypad stations can be programmed to dim.

Q: What it a keypad station?

A: It's a device that takes the place of a conventional light switch they come in many flavors

Q: What type of flavors of they come in?

A: there are 2 button 3 button 6 button keypads and even LCD touch pad station.

Q: Do millions of people use The Clapper® ?

A: We still don't know for sure but they have sold Millions of them.

Q: Questions?

A: We got answers at <http://www.interinter.com> or email us info@interinter.com